Return of the Blue Carpet Event – Mini Museum

Stroll in on Friday evening and display your favorite stamp! Is it your first? Your oldest? The one with the most cachets? Put as much supporting documentation as you want on a poster board and show it all off at this sparkling reception designed for members to show and tell. Have your picture taken on the Blue Carpet, relax, and just chill.

Tour the National Blues Museum and House of Miles Davis

The National Blues Museum commemorates the deep-rooted Blues history embedded in the American musical culture. Celebrating Blues heritage, the museum makes it evident that Blues has acted as the base for all American music. With walls that illustrate the evolving culture of the Blues and a host of interactive exhibits, the museum takes you back in time to relive the history of Blues. There are engaging public events, along with an exquisite theater showcasing films related to American music and the Blues as a genre. If you want to spend your day immersed in the musical history of one of the most celebrated musical genres, National Blues Museum promises to give you an enriching experience.

The mission of the House of Miles Leadership is to nurture, empower and embrace the talents of upcoming generations by reclaiming, restoring and revitalizing our values, identity and Cool. House of Miles Leadership is the cultural epicenter impelled and dedicated to cultivate, connect and celebrate the community through music, heritage and art.

The House of Miles East St. Louis (HOME) is located in the former home of the late Miles Dewey Davis III. Miles Davis is the most revered jazz trumpeter of all time, not to mention one of the most important musicians of the 20th century.

The Blue Velvet Banquet

On Saturday evening, our very special guest and keynote speaker to be determined soon. Join us as we dine, fellowship and celebrate the many accomplishments of ESPER and her members.

Workshops, Bourse, and Vendors!
